

who are in the majority down here crumbling and folding, growing tired, growing disheartened, crying, weeping, talking about the programs they believe in being destroyed. I see programs I believe in destroyed but it is just going to galvanize me to greater effort. I am not going to go away. I am not going to skulk and slink out of this Chamber because you whip me down. You whip me down but you don't whip me and you are not going ultimately to win on the issues that I feel and other people feel are important. You are going to be here for a short time. You will prevail today. You may prevail the rest of this session but there will be another day, another battlefield, and another fight and I will be in it. I will not cut and run and I will use ridicule, scorn, and everything I can whenever you bring up this stuff that you are going to talk about that is important to white people. I am going to point it out how you are all advocates of and for the system but some of you can break out of that mold enough to realize that there are others who are entitled to some consideration and you give it. Others don't because they are what they are, just as I am what I am. And if you feel that your ancestry and your culture and whatever it is that made you what you are impels you to vote and do as you do to these groups that are helpless, understand that I have genes that make up my chromosomes that make me what I am, too. I don't have little blue-eyed, blond haired genes bicycling along in my black chromosomes. Everything in me is black, everything, although in my ancestry there were some females who were considered attractive enough to cause some of your kind to jump over the fence and mix your blood with mine, otherwise I would be pure. My lack of purity does not come from me chasing after yours. It comes from yours forcing yourselves on mine and that has happened in my family, and if you look at some of the members of my family, you would see it. I know you. I have been around you 15 years. We have got drunk drivers among us here. We have got pedophiles among us. We have got everything here but there is an etiquette of discussion among you where you don't talk about these things but there come times when you force me to talk about them because the interests I believe in compel me to do these things and I will continue to do it. And I know you are going to kill this Indian Commission also just as your ancestors in giving bibles and blankets to the Indians infected the blankets with smallpox before giving them to the Indians. The treaties, Senator DeCamp spent a great amount of time, and the rest of you, talking about
